

- 1 . The analysis shows that the business generated 2M in total sales with a profit margin of 11%, indicating stable and healthy profitability.
 - 2 . Total profit stands at 175K, reflecting consistent performance across categories and regions.
 - 3 . The Consumer segment is the dominant contributor with 48% of total sales, making it the key revenue driver, while Corporate and Home Office segments contribute the remaining share.
 - 4 . At the category level, Office Supplies and Phones are the strongest performers, driving the majority of revenue. In contrast, Furniture shows relatively lower performance, suggesting potential for improvement.
 - 5 . From a logistics perspective, Standard Class shipping accounts for approximately 0.91M in revenue, showing strong customer preference for cost-effective delivery options.
 - 6 . Regionally, sales are distributed across four regions, with the West region performing the strongest overall.
 - 7 . Finally, the sales trend shows steady growth with minor fluctuations, and the 15-day forecast indicates stable future performance, suggesting continued short-term growth potential.
- Overall, the business demonstrates strong consumer-driven demand, stable profitability, and consistent growth across key segments.